Tribute to the Ocean

Di Taylor makes regular trips to Margaret River to gather inspiration for her paintings. When here Di loves to stay at Prevelly where she swims daily in the wonderful refreshing ocean which is the subject of many of her works in this exhibition.

"These paintings are a tribute to the ocean, to Gnarabup and to Prevelly, places dear to my heart that have been so damaged by the recent fires. Looking from under the pristine, clear water of the Gnarabup Bay where I swim, back at the escarpment of the 'Surfer's Point' I find I can see the fire damage through the water. In an effort to understand the transient element of the fire, it is amazing that what seemed so devastated, is already starting to regrow. We can all return to the ocean, the blue, blue clear water that has not changed and it provides a refuge for all and a place for us to heal." Di Taylor

Come and meet Di and discuss her work at Jahroc between 2pm and 4pm on Friday 20th
